The Insurer considers War Zone / High Risk Zone and / or Risk Zone to be those geographic areas at war, with war-like situations, revolution, civil unrest, riots, acts of terrorism and similar circumstances, or areas affected by extraordinary natural disaster, earthquakes or landslides. Likewise, any area in which hygiene and health conditions put the health of the Insured Person at risk if he or she is remains present are also considered to be a Risk Zone or High Risk Zone.

The term "War Zone" refers to areas predominated by war, war-like situations, revolution, civil unrest, riots and similar circumstances, while zones of risk are other areas where it is increasingly risky for an Insured Person to remain, which, based on the degree of such risk, are considered to be "Risk Zones" or "High Risk Zones".

Travelling to risk zones, high risk zones and war zones.

In order to contract insurance with coverage in an area mentioned in the paragraph above, it is absolutely necessary that the Insurance Policyholder notify the Insurer of his or her intention to contract such coverage. The Insurer may choose to refuse the risk or to establish a premium surcharge for that travel destination and its inclusion in the classified risk. If such notice is not given and a claim directly related to this particular situation of risk, high risk or war were to occur, the insurance would not guarantee any portion of such a claim.

If the Insured Person is at destination and it were to be declared a Risk Zone, High Risk Zone or War Zone, coverage shall be extended for a period of 14 days from the moment in which the area is declared to be one of special classification. The Insurer must be informed during that period and the Insured Person must decide to abandon said area or agree to pay a premium surcharge on his or her policy, which may include the establishment of new conditions for guarantees, limits and premiums, at the discretion of the Insurer, who may or may not refuse to provide coverage in said zones of risk.

7 CANCELLATION OF POLICIES

Policies whose duration is annual shall be automatically renewed upon their respective due dates for another successive annual period, unless one of the parties provides written notice of his unwillingness to do so to the other party, within two months' time before the termination of the period in course in the case of the Insured Person, and one month in advance in the case of the Policyholder.

8 LIMITS AND CURRENCY OF GUARANTEES

The maximum limits of the guarantees of this Policy shall be those which are stated in the Particular Conditions. For those guarantees in which there is no quantitative limit and that are indicated as included in the mentioned Particular Conditions, it shall be understood that the maximum limit of these shall be the effective cost of providing the service to be performed by the Insurer. In any case, all the limits of this policy are per incident and Insured Person.

Limit per claim: The maximum limit of the indemnity for which the Insurer is liable per claim, for all individuals insured within the group's set of policies, even when several guarantees are affected as a result of a single event, regardless of the number of Insured Persons affected.

The limit shall be stipulated in the Particular Conditions.

In accordance with the conditions herein contained in this section, the maximum indemnity in the case of a claim due to an event classified as a "PUBLIC HEALTH EMERGENCY OF INTERNATIONAL MAGNITUDE" shall be 3,000,000 € (Three million Euros) for the total of all guarantees under this contract, regardless of the number of Insured Persons affected. For this purpose, any and all cases that occur within the 30 days immediately following the declaration of the quarantine shall form part of a single claim.

A limit per insurance period of €600,000 (Six hundred thousand Euros) per policy and year is established for the guarantee of Private Civil Liability.

Unless otherwise stated in the Particular Conditions, the maximum amount to be paid for the same Incident, called accumulation of capital, is set at a maximum of €600,000 (Six hundred thousand Euros), which shall be the maximum amount that the Insurer would make effective in the event of a claim affecting a number of Insured Persons whose sum of compensation exceeds this accumulation, in which case, it shall accrue proportionally to the insured capital of each one affected.

The currency applicable to this Policy is the Euro, so the limits of the guarantees shall be expressed in this currency, regardless of the fact that for those services that must be paid or guaranteed by the Insurer in another currency, the equivalent in Euros thereof will be applicable at the date of occurrence of the accident.

9 OVERLAPPING OF INSURANCE

When any of the risks covered by this Policy is also covered by another Insurer during the same period of time, the Policyholder or the Insured Person shall notify the Insurer of the other existing insurances, unless otherwise agreed.

If such overlapping of insurance is not reported due to malicious intent and an incident occurs in the case of over-insurance, the Insurer is not obligated to pay compensation. Whenever such a claim occurs, the Policyholder or the Insured Person must report it, pursuant accordance with the provisions of the Article on Claims, to the Insurer, and the name of the other Insurers, who shall contribute proportionally to the payment of the services performed.

Likewise, any compensation payable by the Insurer shall constitute a complement to the reimbursements that the Insured Person receives from the Social Security system or from any other protection institution, including mutual insurance companies, for the same medical expenses.

Under no circumstances shall the insurance be used for the unfair enrichment for the Insured Person, nor may he receive an amount of compensation that exceeds the actual expenses.

Unless otherwise agreed in the Particular Conditions, if the said first premium has not been paid before a claim occurs, the Insurance Company shall be released from its obligation.

11.2 In case of non-payment of one of the following premiums, the coverage provided by the Insurer shall be suspended one month after the date of its expiration. If the Insurance Company does not claim payment within six months of the expiration of the premium, it shall be understood that the contract has been terminated.

11.3 In any case, when the contract is under suspension, the Insurer shall only demand the payment of the premium for the current period.

11.4 If the contract has not been terminated or extinguished in accordance with the previous paragraphs, the coverage shall again take effect 24 hours after the Policyholder or the Insured Person paid the premium, whenever appropriate.

12 THE PRINCIPLE OF GOOD FAITH

The Law provides for various situations that, when they occur, go against the interests of the Insured Person, as they are sanctioned with nullity or ineffectiveness of the contract, or with consequences such as its challenge, exemption from the obligation of compensation and even the claim of liquidated damages by the Insurer.

In general, such situations occur when the Policyholder, the Insured Person or the Beneficiary act with malicious intent, bad faith or gross negligence; when the Policyholder makes incorrect statements; when data is hidden; when there is no cooperation in rescue tasks and, in summary, when the principle of good faith underpinning the insurance contract is not respected.

Fraud, willful misrepresentation or concealment of information in connection with a claim shall be grounds for annulment of the Policy. In such case, the Policyholder or the Insured Person shall lose all rights to receive the compensation that can correspond to them and must return any indemnity that the Insurer has already paid. In this case, the Insurer shall not reimburse the premiums.

13 CONTRACT ANNULMENT AND INCONTESTABILITY OF POLICY

The Insurance Contract shall be null and void, except in the cases provided for by the Insurance Contract Law, if at the time of its conclusion the Risk does not exist or the Claim has not occurred (Article 4 of the Insurance Contract Law 50/80 of October 8).

The effect of each registration shall occur from the moment the Insurer is notified and the corresponding premium is paid.

16 INDIVIDUAL INSURANCE CERTIFICATES

The Insurer shall issue for each Insured Person the corresponding Individual Insurance Certificate, which shall include an extract of the General, Particular and Special Conditions where applicable, as well as instructions for the use of the services and guarantees offered through the insured coverage.

The Policyholder expressly assumes the duty to deliver the Certificate to the Insured Person, as well as the information of the contractual conditions and other legally required circumstances.

17 DURATION OF INSURANCE

The insurance shall have the duration that is indicated in the Particular Conditions

The coverage of the policy shall take effect at the time and date indicated in the Special Conditions, provided that the policy has been signed and the first premium satisfied.

Those policies whose duration is annual shall be tacitly extended at their respective maturities for successive annuities, unless one of the parties oppose to its extension by means of written notice to the other party, within two months before the conclusion of the policy period in progress if exercised by the Insurer and one month if done so by the Policyholder.

18 HANDLING OF CLAIMS

Once an incident that gives rise to the provision of any of the guarantees covered by the Policy occurs, it shall be an essential requirement that the Insured Person or his / her relatives, immediately contact the Insurer, by collect call to the Assistance Center, Telegram, fax or e-mail to the numbers indicated in the Particular Conditions.

Should this notification be prevented by force majeure, immediate steps must be taken to end the circumstance impeding notification.

Once the contact has been established, the policy number, the place where the Insured Person is located and a contact telephone number shall be indicated, as well as the circumstance of the accident and the type of assistance requested.

Upon receipt of this notification, the Insurer shall provide a file number and shall immediately put into operation the mechanisms of its international organization in order to provide the required service.

The Insurer is not responsible for delays or breaches due to force majeure or relating to special administrative or political characteristics of a particular country. In any case, if direct intervention by the Insurer is not possible, the Insured Person shall be reimbursed upon return to Spain, or if necessary, as soon as he is in a country where the previous circumstance does not exist, of the expenses incurred, whenever they are guaranteed by the presentation of the corresponding supporting documents.

The medical and health transport services must be carried out with the previous agreement of the physician who treats the Insured Person with the medical equipment of the Insurer.

If the Insured Person were entitled to reimbursement for the unconsumed part of the ticket, when making use of the transport or repatriation guarantee, said refund shall revert to the Insurer. Likewise, with respect to the travel expenses of Insured Persons, the Insurer shall only be responsible for the additional expenses required by the event in excess of those originally anticipated by the Insured Person.

The Insured Person must submit a written complaint to the carrier in compliance with the deadlines established by each company, and must subrogate their rights against the carrier in favor of the Insurer by signing the corresponding subrogation brief, prior to receiving the advance of compensation. The original certificate of the carrier on the occurrence of the delay (reflecting the actual departure time) or cancellation and its causes shall be provided.

The compensations fixed in the described guarantees are complementary to other benefits to which the Insured Person is entitled, and the latter is responsible for managing the necessary steps to recover these expenses from the companies required to pay and to compensate the Insurer for the amounts that have been anticipated.

The Insured Person shall not be entitled to any compensation when he deliberately uses improper documents or fraudulent means, presents incomplete, inaccurate, exaggerated or fraudulent claims or when clauses are concealed and consequences magnified.

51. HOLIDAY REIMBURSEMENT:

The Insurer will reimburse the Insured, up to the maximum amount established in the Special Conditions, and subject to the exclusions mentioned in these General Conditions, for the cost of the services, contracted before the start of the trip and upon prior documentary justification of the cost thereof, which could not have been used as a consequence of the early completion of the scheduled trip, necessarily implying the return of the Insured to their place of habitual residence, for any of the following causes, occurring during the course of the trip.

- a) Due to accident or illness of the Insured.
- b) Due to the hospitalization of a non-insured relative, once the trip has begun, requiring a minimum stay of 24 hours.
- c) Upon the death of the Insured, during the trip, or of a non-insured relative.
- d) Due to serious damage to the home or professional office of the Insured, occurring after the start date of the trip, caused by a fire requiring the intervention of firefighters, explosion, burglary that has been reported to the police, or serious flooding that makes their presence indispensable.

For the purposes of this coverage, any person indicated under the definition of Relatives shall be considered as a family member of the Insured. This coverage will also apply when the patient or deceased person upholds any of those same relationships with the spouse or partner of the Insured. This coverage will also be extended to a companion that the Insured may have during the trip, provided that it is in turn insured by this policy, in case they decide to conclude their trip in advance in order to accompany the Insured on their return to their place of habitual residence. In case of travelling as a family, the early return of all the members of the family will be included, up to a maximum of four people. If it is a family with small children, two more would be included, up to a maximum of six people.

The amount of the reimbursement will be obtained by dividing the total cost of the contracted services by the number of days of travel established in the Special Conditions of the policy and then multiplying the daily amount, obtained by means of this calculation, by the number of travel days lost. In the case of cruise trips, the Insured's hospitalization, which prevents them from continuing the trip, will also be covered. In case of travelling as a family, the accompanying family members will be included, up to a maximum of four people. If it is a family with small children, two more would be included, up to a maximum of six people.

The amount of lost travel days will be counted from the day following that on which the event that caused the interruption of the trip occurred, except in the cases of hospitalization of the Insured or of an uninsured family member, in which case it will be counted from the day of their hospital admission. If the amount corresponding to the contracted services is greater than the insured sum of this guarantee, the calculation of the reimbursement will be made based on the amount resulting from dividing the sum insured between the number of days of the trip.

Under the Annual Modality (Individual or Family), the Insured capital of this guarantee is established by insurance annuity, so that, in the event that the Insured capital is consumed in an accident, this guarantee will no longer take effect until the next annuity, in which the complete replacement of capital would take place.
